Our City.

We never before saw such activity in Evansville. The wharf, the canal, warchouses and railroad depot are all alive, receiving and shipping. This, with the present markets, is wonderful. Our wharf for the last two days has presented a throng of steamboats seldom or ever witnessed before. But in every direction business and activity present themselves. In the heart of the city and in the outskints every where, are new buildings springing up. One of the latest developments is the fellow-citizen Clement Reitz, the foundations freight. of which are being laid wide and deep on other of the new manufacturing establishments which are going to swell the population of Evansville.

Light Sentence.

Notwithstanding there was not a single mitigating circum- expected here early this morning for St. which is published in the National Intelligenstance, yet the Jury sentenced this man to Louis. only three months imprisonment with a fine of one dollar! So one dollar, and three months imprisonment in the County Jail, may be set down as the whole cost of shooting into a crowd of men like a bevy of quails, so he does not wound more than three men or kill more than one.

She is fast and comfortable. the very best lots ever offered for sale in this city, and which can be improved so as to pay a large interest at once, and which will double in value in two years. An old merchant of Evansville estimates the wholesale business of the city for the present month at nearly, if not quite double, that of any former month of its history. Our city never presented so lively and active an appearance before, and now is the time, when real estate must be sold, to get great bargains.
